

please do not take away our Wisconsin State's DO NOT CALL LIST, by only requiring the national list. Our State policy has given us the privacy we deserve in our own home. The state follows through if any company violates it's policy. I know, they took care of a problem with a telemarketer for me. Please allow the States to govern themselves. The federal government has enough on its plate.